

Privacy Policy

Collection of Information. If you wish to use certain features on our website such as contact us, make an appointment, or place an order, it is necessary for us to collect certain information such as name, address, phone numbers, email address, billing address, shipping address, credit card number, etc. Empower Health & Aesthetic Institute will ask only for the information needed to provide the service or product you have requested.

Use of Information. Your personal information can be accessed by certain authorized employees, directors, and managers of Empower Health & Aesthetic Institute to help the company develop internal reports, to plan, and to facilitate school and clinic operations. Other than as stated above, or as stated in our HIPAA Notice Of Privacy Practices, Empower Health & Aesthetic Institute will not reveal your personal information to any third party unless the company is required to do so by law.

If you have any questions or concerns relating to this Privacy Policy please contact us at 214-272-0026.
